

Introduced by Senator Soto

March 30, 2005

---

Senate Joint Resolution No. 6—Relative to the 60th anniversary of the death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SJR 6, as introduced, Soto. Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

This measure would recognize the contributions of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, on the 60th anniversary of his death.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, Franklin Delano Roosevelt was born in Hyde
2 Park, New York, on January 30, 1882; and
3 WHEREAS, In 1921, at the age of 39, Mr. Roosevelt suffered 4 a debilitating and crippling bout with poliomyelitis; and 5 WHEREAS, Through determination, courage, and strength of 6 will, he regained the use of his legs; and 7 WHEREAS, In 1928, he was elected to the first of consecutive 8 two-year terms as Governor of New York; and 9 WHEREAS, With the world mired in the Great Depression, in 10 1932, Mr. Roosevelt was elected to the first of four terms as 11 President of the United States; and
12 WHEREAS, In his first 100 days in office, President
13 Roosevelt proposed, and the Congress enacted, a comprehensive 14 program to offer recovery to business and agriculture, and relief
15 to those who had lost their jobs and those in danger of losing 16 their farms and their homes; and 17 WHEREAS, President Roosevelt expanded the safety net for 18 the nation's unemployed, and pushed for the creation of the 19 Social Security program, to keep the elderly and the disabled out 20 of poverty; and

WHEREAS, Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, President Roosevelt ensured that America's resources and people power were devoted to the global war against Nazism and Fascism; and

WHEREAS, President Roosevelt led our nation during two of its greatest crises, and in so doing, forever changed America's role as the ultimate world economic and military power; and

WHEREAS, With his death by cerebral hemorrhage on April 12, 1945, he did not live to see the final victories over the Axis powers and the Great Depression; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That on the 60th anniversary of his death, the California Legislature recognizes the monumental contributions of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, one of the greatest presidents in our nation's history; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.